

Broken Bells - After The Disco

Tom: D

Intro: Bm A E

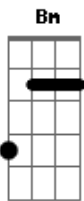

After your faith has let you down
 I know you'll want to run around
 And follow the crowd into the night
 But after the disco all of the shine just faded away
 Oh oh oh oh, do what you want, do what you will
 Don't tell me it's not our time
 Cause I'm waiting here much too long and Don't assume, that I need your love. The chill of night has got you dancing away and I'm Not the dreamer, or the dream you're

Em
 Out there looking for
 Bm A E
 How did I get in this winding maze of love?
 Bm
 And there's something wrong and it's sending you
 A E round and round til we go nowhere
 Instrumental
 Bm A E
 Bm
 I see the ashes on the ground
 A E
 I know the world is burning down
 Bm
 And under the cold and empty moon
 A E Bm
 But after the disco all of the shine just faded away
 A E
 Oh oh oh oh, do what you want, do what you will
 Bm
 Don't tell me it's not our time
