Tom: A

INTRO:

Gbm D Gbm D
Gbm D A E

Gbm D Gbm D
So you show me round your town, to hell again and back

Gbm D Gbm A E
your love has served to alienate all the friends you depend on

Gbm D Gbm D
I know it might seem odd, cause you're not the only

Gbm D A E
one

I remember myself as a lonely child so i was and you've got me wrong, you got me...

Gbm A B
Wrong just seems so right

Gbm A B
till the spike of morning light

Gbm A B
and all these searching eyes

Gbm A B
do they scald your tender hide

Gbm D Gbm D
Remember what they say... there's no shortcut to a dream

Gbm D A E
it's all blood and sweat and life is what you manage in between?

Gbm D Gbm D
but what you don't know... is you're too young and eager to love

B

this evening i see you're about to get into the ditch that your old man dug

Gbm A B
Wrong just seems so right

Gbm A B
till the spike of morning light

Gbm A B
and all these searching eyes

Gbm A B
do they scald your tender hide

Gbm A Gbm D
See the stars align... and leave you behind

B A Gbm D
you want it so and I... I come by light of an autumn moon

B A Gbm D
sister you know enough... but for now just let it go

B A Gbm D
don't run don't rush... just flow

Gbm A B
Through the give and take you've had to learn

Gbm A B
How to cross the coals and not get burned

Gbm A B
But you're really just a little girl

Gbm A B
(Playing in the park) Till the sun goes down

Gbm D Gbm D
So twenty one arrives... one day and your time is up

Gbm D A E
no doubt you think you braided your own hair, so you're all grown up

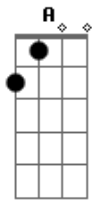

Gbm D Gbm D
should you wander cross the line... which way do you want to fight

B

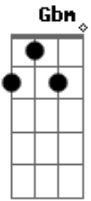

pretending at love could help you find your way but you've got me wrong

Gbm
Yeah you got me wrong
