

Brooke Fraser - Je Suis Pret

Tom: G
Intro: Am

I looked away while the water was receding
I looked away for a second, for a second
And it's gone, everyone was caught sleeping

I am awake and the air is pulsating
I am awake, as it gathers, see it growing
I'm in doubt, here it comes, am I ready?
Am I ready?

Am See the tempest looking my way

D Drain the skies of all their color

Am And I need eye to eye

D With a fire in my breast

Am Je suis pret

D I am ready, I am ready

Am Je suis pret

D I am ready, I am ready

I will be healed, and my brother, so shall you be
Stand over here, by my side
We will awake to the river, to the river
Washing away all our shy

Am See the tempest looking my way

D Drain the skies of all their color

Am And I need eye to eye

D With a fire in my breast

Je suis pret
D I am ready, I am ready

Am Je suis pret
D I am ready, I am ready
