

Bruce Dickinson - Navigate The Seas Of The Sun

Tom: G
Intro: Bm - C - Em - D
Bm - C - Em - D

G Am
Distant earthrise long ago lingers at the borders of our minds Em
mysteries spinning in the dark in the frozen emptiness of time Em
we were lost and we never knew who we were or what we left behind Em
G Am
living half-lives we were blind to the new frontiers that opened up Bm
our eyes
Bm C
to find our minds were spinning
Em D
souls entwined in a spiral dance
Bm C
the ancient ways have found us
again to give us one last chance
Em G
living in this place
staring into space we find Am we might share the corners of our lives G infinity runs deep eternity that we can keep Am melting through the frozen wastes of time?...
G Am
so we go and we'll not return to navigate the seas of the sun Em
our children will go on and on
G Am
we'll navigate the seas of the sun Em
our children will go on and on to navigate the seas of the sun Bm
Bm C

we can go on tomorrow
living death by gravity
couldn't stand it anymore
Em D
we'll sail our ships to distant shores
purple gold and blue living colors every hue Am flowers in the garden of the gods Em
no one can ever know if you never saw them grow Am but this darkness is really full of light Bm [solos]
now beyond the earth beyond all things that gave us birth Am we'll navigate the seas of the sun Em
if god is throwing dice and einstein doesn't mind the chance Am
infinity runs deep
eternity that we can keep
we'll navigate...
flowers of our souls
purple blue and gold we'll find
to navigate... so we know who we are even in this frozen waste
we'll navigate...
staring into space we'll find
we'll navigate...
well beyond the earth
beyond all things that gave us birth we'll...
if einstein's throwing dice and god he doesn't mind the chance
we'll navigate...
flowers of the soul
we'll navigate...
and who we were before
eternity that we can keep
we'll navigate...
