

Bruce Springsteen - Candy's Boy

tom:

Intro: E A E A E

E A
In Candy's room their are pictures of her savior on the wall

E
But to get to Candy's room, you've got to walk the darkness of Candy's hall

Dbm Am A
Strangers from the city call my baby's number, and they bring Candy toys

E B
But when I come knockin', she smiles pretty, she knows tonight I'm gonna be

E
Candy's boy

E A
Well in the olden days when the Mongolian gangs rode herd out on route nine

E A E
We'd go ridin' in the rain, runnin' south, way down through the pines

Dbm Abm A
Am

Weekends in the sun in that cheap motel down by the Dynamo

B
We loved each other till their was nothing left, and drove that old car as

E
Hard and fast as she would go

Dbm Abm A Am
Well like a cold winter wind blowin' in babe I needed you

E B E
But Candy's got a man who takes care of her better than I do

E A E
Well there's machine and there's fire, waitin' for us on the edge of town

E A
And there's some rough boys for hire, and they're waitin' to blow me and

E Dbm Abm A
Candy down it's all right cause they can't touch us now they'll never

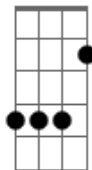

Am
Destroy

E B E A
My sweet love, for I will forever be Candy's boy..hmm hmm
hmmhmm hmm hmm

E B E
My sweet love, I will forever be Candy's boy
