

Bruce Springsteen - Candy's Boy

tom:

Intro: E A E A E

In Candy's room their are pictures of her savior on the wall
 Hard and fast as she would go

But to get to Candy's room, you've got to walk the darkness of Candy's hall
 Well like a cold winter wind blowin' in babe I needed you

Strangers from the city call my baby's number, and they bring Candy toys
 But Candy's got a man who takes care of her better than I do

But when I come knockin', she smiles pretty, she knows tonight
 Well there's machine and there's fire, waitin' for us on the edge of town

I'm gonna be
 And there's some rough boys for hire, and they're waitin' to blow me and

Candy's boy
 Candy down it's all right cause they can't touch us now they'll never

Well in the olden days when the Mongolian gangs rode herd out on route nine Destroy

We'd go ridin' in the rain, runnin' south, way down through the pines
 My sweet love, for I will forever be Candy's boy..hmm hmm

My sweet love, I will forever be Candy's boy
