C G F C

C Put on your black dress baby, and put your hair up right F C
There's a party way down in Factory Town tonight G
I'll be going down there if you need a ride F C
Come on, come on, let's go tonight G F C

C F C
How many men fail, their dreams denied
They walk through these streets with death in their eyes G
Now the man on the radio says "Elvis Presley died" F C
G F C

Come on, come on, let's go tonight

[Solo] C F C
G C F
C G F C

C F C
Well now some came to witness, now some came to weep G
Drawn by death's strange glory, they stood in the street C
Drawn together forever in the promise of an endless sleep G F C
Come on, come on, let's go tonight G F C
Baby, come on, come on, let's go tonight G F C
