

Bruno Bessa - Better Off Alone

tom:

Dm

What are you thinking of when you hold my hand?
Spare me your promises and your words

They sound so bland

Bbm Am

I have made up my mind

I'm leaving all these memories behind

Who am I tell you what is sick or sane?

I don't know what you are

Just don't wanna be the same

I'm better off alone

No one but me to hear myself complain

If I sing my song

And no one sings along

I won't let you see me cry

This is my refrain

I won't live in vain

At least it's worth the try

I will raise my voice

Overcome the noise

I'll sing with fortune by my side

Words I know by heart

It's my work of art

Everything and everyone will pass me by

All I have is I

tom:

Dm

Maybe I'm not from here, I belong to somewhere else

Gotta keep moving on

I can't look back

I'll keep my eyes on track

My road to I-don't-know-where

Has no place to stop

Faces and traces vanish while the wind blows

My fate will lead the way

I'll wait until I see the light of day

If I sing my song

And no one sings along

I won't let you see me cry

This is my refrain

I won't live in vain

At least it's worth the try

I will raise my voice

Overcome the noise

I'll sing with fortune by my side

Words I know by heart

It's my work of art

Everything and everyone will pass me by

All I have is I
