

Bruno Bessa - Better Off Alone

tom:
                Dm
       Dm
                      Dm
What are you thinking of when you hold my hand?
Spare me your promises and your words
They sound so bland
I have made up my mind
   Gm
                    Am
                               Dm
I'm leaving all these memories behind
Who am I tell you what is sick or sane?
I don't know what you are
Just don't wanna be the same
       Am
I'm better off alone
No one but me to hear myself complain
If I sing my song
And no one sings along
I won't let you see me cry
       Dm
This is my refrain
       \mathsf{Am}
I won't live in vain
At least it's worth the try
       Dm
I will raise my voice
Overcome the noise
I'll sing with fortune by my side
Words I know by heart
    Am
It's my work of art
Everything and everyone will pass me by
All I have is I

I have been overseas tryin' to find myself
                            Am
Maybe I'm not from here, I belong to somewhere else
Gotta keep moving on
 Gm
I can't look back
     Αm
I'll keep my eyes on track
My road to I-don't-know-where
       Am
Has no place to stop
                         Am
Faces and traces vanish while the wind blows
My fate will lead the way
    Gm
I'll wait until I see the light of day
If I sing my song
And no one sings along
I won't let you see me cry
       Dm
This is my refrain
       Am
I won't live in vain
At least it's worth the try
       Dm
I will raise my voice
Overcome the noise
I'll sing with fortune by my side
           Dm
Words I know by heart
      Am
It's my work of art
Everything and everyone will pass me by
All I have is I
