

Bruno Cisari - My Father's Eyes

tom:
Capostrate na 5ª casa

You know that I miss you much
You know that it won't be enough
My love for you trespass the sky
This clouds and stars don't hold me by
By the way the sky is so damn blue
I wish I was there with you
To give so much love to you

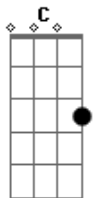

Like you did to me and my brothers too

Your blue eyes are my sky
They guide me everyday

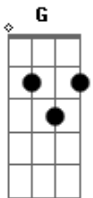

Your hug, your touch, was all to me
Your smile, your face, you were all I see
You gave all your love to our family
Now your love will be safe with me

Your blue eyes are my sky
They guide me everyday
