

Bruno Mars - Smokin' Out The Window (feat. Anderson .Paak)

Why you doin' this to me, girl?
                             tom:
                                                                   Not to be dramatic, but I wanna die
                Bm
            Smokin' out the window
                                                                   [Pré-Refrão]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                                       Em
                                                                   This bitch got me payin' her rent, payin' for trips
                                                                   Diamonds on her neck, diamonds on her wrist
    Must've spent thirty-five
Forty-five thousand up in Tiffany's (oh, no)
                                                                   And here I am all alone (all alone)
    Got her badass kids runnin' 'round my whole crib
                                                                   I'm so cold, I'm so cold
Like it's Chuck E Cheese
                                                                   You got me out here
Put me in a jam with her ex-man in the \ensuremath{\mathsf{UFC}}
                                                                   [Refrão]
Can't believe it (can't believe it)
                                                                   Smokin' out the window (smokin' out the window)
I'm in disbelief
                                                                   Singin': How could she do this to me?
[Pré-Refrão]
                                                                   (How could she do this to me?)
This bitch got me payin' her rent, payin' for trips
                                                                   I thought that girl belonged to only me
Diamonds on her neck, diamonds on her wrist
                                                                   But I was wrong
And here I am all alone (all alone)
                                                                   'Cause she belong to everybody
I'm so cold, I'm so cold
                                                                   Everybody, oh
     {\sf Gbm}
You got me out here
                                                                   ( G Gbm Bm )
                                                                   ( G Gbm Bm )
[Refrão]
                                                                   [Ponte]

Smokin' out the window (smokin' out the window)
                                                                     Girl, it breaks my heart
Singin': How could she do this to me?
                                                                   That you ain't right here with me
(How could she do this to me?)
                                                                   Now I gotta give you back (gotta give you back)
I thought that girl belonged to only me
                                                                   To the city, oh, you got me
            D
But I was wrong
                    Gbm
                                                                   [Refrão]
'Cause she belong to everybody
Everybody, oh
                                                                   Smokin' out the window (smokin' out the window)
[Segunda Parte]
                                                                   Singin': How could she do this to me?
Just the other night she was grippin' on me tight
                                                                   (How could she do this to me?)
Screamin': Hercules (Hercules, Hercules)
                                                                   I thought that girl belonged to only me
Got me in the club lookin' for a new love
                                                                   But I was wrong
Someone help me please (help me please, help me please)
                                                                                       Gbm
                                                                   'Cause she belong to everybody
    Baby, why you doin' this?
                                                                   Everybody, oh
