

Bruno Mars - Young Girls

Tom: A

Intro: A Dbm Gbm D E

I spend all my money
On a big old fancy car
For this bright-eyed honeys
Oh yeah, you know who you are
Keep me up 'til the sun is high
'Til the birds start calling my name
I'm addicted and I don't know why
Guess I've always been this way

All these roads steer me wrong
But I still drive them all night long
All night long

[Refrão]
All you young, wild girls
You make a mess of me
Yeah you young, wild girls
You'll be the death of me
The death of me
Oh you young, wild girls
No matter what you do
Yeah you young, wild girls
I'll always come back to you
Come back to you

I get lost under these lights
I get lost in the words I say
Stop believing my own lies
Like everything will be ok
Oh, I still dream of simple life
Boy meets girl makes her his wife

But love don't exist when you live like this
That much I know
Yes, I know

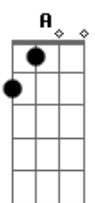

All these roads steer me wrong
But I still drive them all night long
All night long

[Refrão]
All you young, wild girls
You make a mess of me
Yeah you young, wild girls
You'll be the death of me
The death of me
Oh you young, wild girls
No matter what you do
Yeah you young, wild girls
I'll always come back to you
Come back to you

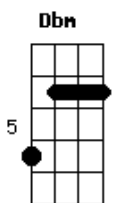

You, you, you, you
Yeah you you you
You you you you

[Refrão]
All you young, wild girls
You make a mess of me
Yeah you young, wild girls
You'll be the death of me
The death of me
Yeah you young, wild girls
I'll always come back to you
Come back to you
