

Bryan Adams - Summer of '69

Standing on your mamma's porch tom: You told me that you'd wait forever And when you held my hand (D A D A) I knew that it was now or never [Primeira Parte] Those were the best days of my life I got my first real six string Back in the summer of 'sixty nine Bought it at the five & dime [Ponte] Played it til my fingers bled Bb Was the summer of sixty nine Man we were killin' time We were young and reckless Me and some guys from school We needed to unwind Had a band and we tried real hard I guess nothing can last forever Jimmy quit and Jody got married (DADA) Should've known we'd never get far [Terceira Parte] [Refrão 1] And now the times are changin' Oh, when I look back now Look at everything that's come and gone That summer seemed to last forever Sometimes when I play that old six string And if I had the choice I think about you wonder what went wrong [Refrão 3] Yeah, I'd always wanna be there Those were the best days of my life Standin' on your mama's porch [Interlúdio] D A D A You told me it'd last forever [Segunda Parte] And when you held my hand Ain't no use complaining I knew that it was now or never When you've gotta job to do Those were the best days of my life Back in the summer of 'sixty nine Spent my evenings down at the drive in And that's when I met you, yeah [Final] D A D A DADA [Refrão 2] Acordes Jkulele-chords.com
