

Busted - New York

Tom: C

F
I've been walking down on fifth street

G
Took the A train all the way to 59th

F
Hanging round Columbus circle

I'm just drifting as the day turns into night

C
I'm a little bit tired

G
I'm a little hungover

F
I don't know how to spend the day

As the city gets brighter

G
In the moment I wonder

F
How I let you slip away

C
Cause I'm in New York, I'm in New York

G
And nothing here has changed

C
But without you here in New York

F
Nothing feels the same

F
I paint a picture of the future

But the future's just a picture of your face

F
'Cause I used to be here with ya

Now I'm here alone, the future's been erased

F
You go on and I don't know

If I'll ever feel at home without you near

F
Still my ghost is there with you

G
Am I suppose to make it through without you here?
Yeah

I'm a little bit tired
G
I'm a little hungover
F
I don't know how to spend the day
As the city gets brighter

How I let you slip away
Cause I'm in New York, I'm in New York
F
And nothing here has changed
C
But without you here in New York
F
Nothing feels the same
