C
[Primeira Parte]
Wearing C
raspberry velvet and the rabbits in the hole
Where the apple tree fell over two years ago
F
Man you could never stop, it was always gonna go
C
When you're hiding in the cotton get a tickle in your soul

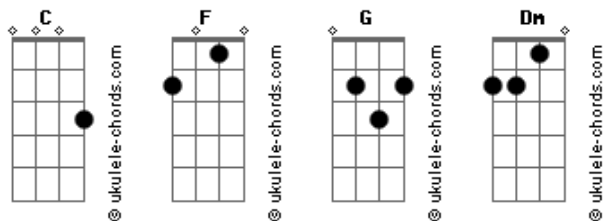

[Pré-Refrão]
G F C
And I could really go for a little bit of rock-n-roll
G F C
Yeah, I could really go for a little bit of rock-n-roll
(C)

[Segunda Parte]
C
Let's go looking in the sugar cane
C
And wander round' the country in the pouring rain
F
Win a couple dollars, lose a couple games
C
And walk tall laughin' in the sugar cane
[Pré-Refrão]

G F C
And then take a trip on a golden airplane
G F C
Y?ah, then take a trip on a golden airplan?
[Refrão]

F C
And you'll tell me what your heart's been through
F C
Tell me where you're going, too
F Dm

Acordes

Tell me all things you'd like to do but you can't
C F Dm
'Cause you're scared that you're going to hell
C F Dm
Feels alright but you can't really tell
C F Dm
All of that cigarette ash is good and well
G
It's good and well
(C)

[Terceira Parte]
C
There's a mother of pearl layin' in the sand
C
A quarter of the size of the palm of your hand
F
Hold it to the sun, sure does look grand
C
Hanging from your mirror on a rubber band
[Pré-Refrão]

G F C
Your whole damn life you never even had a plan
G F C
It's like your whole damn life you never even had a plan
[Refrão]

F C
To tell me what your heart's been through
F C
Tell me where you're going, too
F Dm
Tell me all things you'd like to do but you can't
C F Dm
'Cause you're scared that you're going to hell
C F Dm
Feels alright but you can't really tell
C F Dm
All of that cigarette ash is good and well
G
It's good and well
