

Caamp - Common Man

Tom: G

G C
Common man, six foot tall he stands

C
D
Waiting on his date for some company party in France

D
And she's late, the boss man said ?a quarter till eight?

C D
D
And as nine rolled around at his watch he's looking down, the ticking fate

C D
G (C G)
Oh the funny thing about love is it makes you wait

G C
D
He wore his good shoes, now he's walking them home with the homesick blues

D
Feeling like he fucked up, it's all right he'll get back up because he chooses to

G C
D
His overcoat, speckled with snow he walks alone

D
Just then he turns his head and sees a girl of which they said
the poets wrote

C D Em
G

Don?t hesitate my dear, don?t wait put it all on the line

C D Em
G

D I?m a leap of faith my dear, and I?m slipping down your spine

C D Em
G

I will wait my dear till I?m dead or the end of my time

C D G (C G)
C
Or you let me know you're mine

G C
D
He went insane; oh the thought of her tortured his brain

D
So he retraced his steps so he would not forget where she'd been

G C D
C
But she was gone, just the scent of her lingered on

D
So he lived all of his days with his head stuck in a maze half stoned

C D Em
G

Don?t hesitate my dear, don?t wait put it all on the line

C D Em
G

I?m a leap of faith my dear, and I?m slipping down your spine

C D Em
G

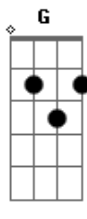

I will wait my dear till I?m dead or the end of my time

C D G
C
Or you let me know you're mine

C D G (C G)
C
Or you let me know you're mine
