

Cage The Elephant - How Are You True

Oh no, no, don't cry, oh no
Intro: Bm Em Em Em Gb7

                                                              Hey, how are you true? The light will guide you home, yes it Wake up, say a little prayer, out of bed to the bathroom where I take a look at myself
                                                               D7
And I stop and stare, and I wonder who is this standing here
                                                               Oh the years, they turn so fast, soon the present will be past and you'll look back and laugh
And I try to find the will to carry on Yes you will
                        G
Wonder how much longer I can carry on
                                                                                               Em
                                                                                                                G<sub>b</sub>7

                                                    A7
                                                               Well I can still remember, yes I was a young man too
                                                                                               Em
Cause these days they take so long, yes they do
                                                               Alone, but not forgotten and the candle shining through
                                                                                         G
                                                                                                           Em
                                                               Still all these words I've spoken don't mean anything at all
A7
Hey, how are you true? The light will guide you home, yes it
                                                                                   Em
                                                               Without love, without love, without love will

                                                                                 Em
                                                                                            Em
                     Α7
                                                               Without lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love
Rm
Hey, how are you true? Well there's one thing that you should know, yes you should

                                                               Do do do do, do do do do, do do do do, oh yeah
You need love, you need love, you need love
                                                                                                                         Α7
                                                                                          Gb7
                                                                          G
                                                                                                          Bm
                                                               Do do do do, do do do do do do do do do, oh yeah
                   Em
                              Em
You need lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-lo-love
                                                               I remember clearly we were both there on the airplane
All your days spend countin' numbers 'til one day you'll find,
                                                                                                         Gh
                                                               Told me all your secrets, oh I never saw it coming
That life has passed you by
                                                               I thought that you were joking, you were actually quite
And in the quiet still of silence try to hide your eyes serious
