

Callum Beattie - We Are Stars

```
Tom: B
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I should have been a little bit stronger
           Ε
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I should have tried a little bit harder
                                                                                      Abm
I'm the one who stole the stars for you % \left\{ 1,2,\ldots ,n\right\} =\left\{ 1,2,
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           B Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Or maybe just a tiny bit wiser
                                      Abm
                                                                                                                  В
I'm the fool who lost it all and I'd lose it all again
                                                          Abm
I'd like to think that your the same as me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Cause we are stars
                                                                                                                                                                                                            В
                                                                                                   Abm
But something tells me that your not
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    We are lights
Quite lost without me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    We are golden in the night
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Ahm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    We are planets in this sky
I should have been a little bit stronger
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Waiting to appear
I should have tried a little bit harder
                                                                                                                                                                                  B Dbm
                                                         Abm
Or maybe just a tiny bit wiser
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    And we are stones
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    We're all but dust
Cause we are stars
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Green to brown
We are lights
                                                                                                                                                                               Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Gold to rust
We are golden in the night
                                                                                                                                                                  Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Just a moon
We are planets in this sky
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Breaking up
Waiting to appear
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    In your atmosphere
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   F
And we are stones
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    In your atmosphere
                                                                                               Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            Dbm
We're all but dust
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    In your atmosphere
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     E
Green to brown
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Your atmosphere
                                                       Dbm
Gold to rust
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Cause we are stones
Just a moon
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    We're all but dust
Breaking up
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Green to brown
In your atmosphere
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Gold to rust
                                                           Abm
                                                                                                                                                                                                Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Just a moon
Your the one stole the sun from me
And you're the fool that took the fall
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Breaking up
                                                               Dbm
And you blamed on me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    In your atmosphere
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Dbm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    I'm the one who stole the stars for you
```

Acordes

