

Camylio - Hurting Me, Hurting You

Capostrate na 1ª casa

Darling I've been putting you through hell
Pushing you away to save myself
Truth is I'm a little overwhelmed
Tryna be the shape of someone else

So I pick fights just so I feel loved
Avoid the blame when I mess it up
My words are now a waste
What have I done

It's hurting me hurting you
Every part of me's split in two
Go ahead and cut me loose
Tell your mom I'll miss her too
'Cause it's hurting me hurting you
I'm hurting you
I'm hurting you
I'm hurting you

I'm hurting you

Won't you put a knife right thru my heart
Leave without a word into the dark
'Cause I don't deserve to know your love
And the thought of losing us tears me apart

So I pick fights just so I feel loved
Avoid the blame when I mess it up
My words are now a waste
What have I done

It's hurting me hurting you
Every part of me's split in two
Go ahead and cut me loose
Tell your mom I'll miss her too
'Cause it's hurting me hurting you
I'm hurting you
I'm hurting you
I'm hurting you
I'm hurting you
