

Canto Verbo - The Song Of Hosea - New Again

Oh, the sweetest love you showed tom: Intro: C D C D Bm You made of her your only wife Now in you, she is pure and bright So she comes around the table Like the moon G G G Once again Now she shines the light that comes from you With a broken heart and guilty hands You are her only hope, her way, her truth G G G Only you could cure and mend the pain You're everything that she has now And as she comes She saw it glowing, and she went astray G She heard the whisper and was wooed away Yes she fell for all of them Take her, break her, tell her what she needs and make her new again She took a lie and made it true G G G Take her, clothe her, wash her in your blood and make her new To fill the hole that she could never do As if she would catch the rainbow Take her, fill her, give her bread and wine and make her whole And as she comes again Take her, break her, tell her what she needs and make her new You gave yourself; you paid the price With tears and blood, you saved our life Oh, the sweetest love you showed to us Take her, fill her, give her bread and wine and make her whole again You made of us your only wife So you kept all the promises Now in you, we are pure and bright And as we come with broken hearts, we cry out G G G You vowed to her Am And when you saw it in their eyes, oh you're just a fool G G G Take us, break us, tell us what we need and make us new again It didn't keep you from loving her Take us, clothe us, wash us in your blood and make us pure You gave yourself; you paid the price again With tears and blood, you saved her life Take us, fill us, give us bread and wine and make us sing
