

Canyon City - Needles & Pins

tom: A

I woke up before the sun rose A

Did my best to walk on tip toes Dbm

Needles and pins Bm

Cus if you heard the way I pace D

Around this room your mind would race for the D

Reasons and sins A

I never learned to wear a tie and go to work and Dbm

Tell you lies like everything's ok Bm

Though sometimes it is for a little while D

And I can live in between those smiles D

And patiently wait Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found D A E

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown D A E

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down Bm D E

Before the next breathe you need the grace A

To breathe out A

I've been talking faster I've been A

Looking for distraction trying to Dbm

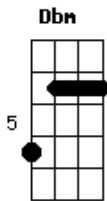

Loosen up some days Bm

Ain't it funny how we can't remember

Most our lives while a few words never D

Mercifully fade A

So I beg you honey take some pictures Dbm

Frame them hang them high and let's Bm

Set fire to the room Bm

Cus I think I like the lighting better D

When it's wrapped up in burning time like D

Sweaters for your cold winter blue Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found D A E

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown D A E

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down Bm D E

Before the next breathe you need the grace A

To breathe out Dbm D A E

Oh have I lost some keys in the dust as I cleaned up Dbm D Bm E

Oh don't it always seem to come as you let go Bm

When it feels like home where you can't be found D A E

Cus she haunts the alone and you need her now Bm

Revered like gold in your plastic crown D A E

When your kingdom falls and you lay it down Bm D E

Before the next breathe you need the grace Bm D E

Before the next breathe you need the grace A

To breathe out

I woke up before the sun rose
