Car Seat Headrest - 1937 State Park

Tom: Eb
Eb
(I never thought it would happen to me but?) $x 2$
Eb
No one should ever have to look at themselves

Eb
I steer clear of graveyards
They are cliche
In my death-obsessed generation
Eb
No one should ever have to look at themselves
Eb
High school teen dream dies in the hospital
Leaves behind a journal and a pair of Air Jordans
Eb
Lyrics of popular rock ballads
Ab
Changed to include his name
Eb
I'm taking back my heart
You were digging a hole for it six feet deep
(at the state park, at the state park)
Ab Eb
I didn't want you to hear Ab
That shake in my voice
My pain is my own
Ab
And when the cops shook me down
I cried walking home
F Ab Bb
I cried walking home
F Ab Eb
Eb
You and me are connected now
We were in one photograph and we don't even look happy
I can't commit to a crime to commit
I need to get one done for the biography because
Eb

Acordes

When I split the scene Leave the party early

What am I leaving behind me? Eb
Just a memory
Another body
Ab
It ain't no pair of Air Jordans
Eb
Something is ringing
Death is playing his
Xylophone ribs for me
Eb Ab x2
Ab Eb
I didn't want you to hear Ab
That shake in my voice
My pain is my own
