Am
I remember the day
                                                                       2ª parte
That we met at the park
like it was yesterday ,
                                                                       D
                                                                       You pass through my door all the days
                                Am
you were so polite and patient,
                                                                       Am
                                                                       always greets me
I was so young and innocent,
                                                                       You?re nice to me
Am
                                                                                   Em
                                                                                                   G hardly we knew each other and you?ve made me smile but nothing more than that .
G
with your funny and conqueror way.
                                                                                                           C
                                                                       I dream of having you in my arms
             D
Those lights revealing your sparkling face
                                                                       G
