

The Carpenters - At The End Of a Song

Tom: F

They tell me C

Somewhere this life isn't crazy Dm

But I've traveled the world far and wide G

And I say they're wrong C

Don't sell me

Stories that music's a lady Dm

It's not when the singer's alone F G

At the end of a song C

At the end of a song Em

There's no one F

After the last note is played Em F

Only the memory stays Em F Gm

Then even that fades away Gm F F7

And there's nothing so hard Bb Bbm

As convincing your heart F C7sus4 F

That you should start singing again

Solo da Introdução

You told me C

Nothing could change perfect lovers Dm

But like ev'ry promise you made G

It broke before long C

It's lonely

Falling away from each other Dm

But we've come to the last of your words F G

And the end of a song C

Repeat
