Tom: Ab	Ab	Ab
Ab	I don't wanna' spend my life jaded	Ab
Standing at the back door	Ab Fm	Fm7
Ab	Waiting to wake up one day and find	Eb
She tried to make it fast	Db
Fm	That I've let all these years go by
One tear hit the hard wood	Ab
Fm	Wasted
Ab	Ab	Ab
It felt like broken glass	Oh I don't wanna' keep on wishing, missing	Ab
Db	Fm Fm7
She said sometimes love slips away	the still of the morning' the color of the night
Eb	Db Eb
And you just can't get it back	I ain't spending no more time
Ab	Ab
Let's face it	Wasted
Ab	Fm7
For one split second	She kept drivin' along
Ab	Ab	Fm Eb
She almost turned around	Db
Fm	Till the moon and the sun were floating side-by-side
Fm	Fm7	Ab
But that would be like pouring rain drops	He looked in the mirror and his eyes were clear
Db	Fm Eb Db
So she took another step and said	For the first time in a while
Eb	Ab
I see the way out and I'm gonna' take it	Hey, yeah,
Ab	Ab	Ab
I don't wanna' spend my life jaded	Ab Fm	Fm7
Ab Fm	Waiting to wake up one day and find	Eb
Waiting to wake up one day and find	Db
Db	That I've let all these years go by
That I've let all these years go by	Ab
Ab	Wasted
Ab	Ab	Ab
Another glass of whisky and it still don't kill the pain	I don't wanna' spend my life jaded	Ab
Fm Fm	Ab Fm	Fm7
So he stumbles to the sink and pours it down the drain	Waiting to wake up one day and find	Eb
Db	Db
He says it's time to be a man and stop living for yesterday	That I've let all these years go by
Ab	Ab
gotta Face it.	Wasted
