tom:
B (forma dos acordes no tom de G)
Capostrate na 4ª casa

I wish I had another five more minutes

I wish I had the words to say

I know it probably would've made no difference

But I would've begged for you to stay

Midnight comes and I go looking for you

My mind runs through all the photographs

One by one, another year without ya

I'm here without ya

I'm blowing out the candles, talking to the stars

Don't know how to handle not knowing where you are

Feel like something's missing, missing, yeah

Using all my wishes, wishes, yeah

Still tryna turn the time back, letting go is hard

And blowing on an eyelash doesn't change your heart

Feel like something's missing, missing, yeah

Using all my wishes, wishes, yeah

Still wishin' you were here

I hate the way you make me feel this hollow

Even though it's not your fault

Losin' you is a pill I still can't swallow

So, I still wait for you to call

Midnight comes and I go looking for you

My mind runs through all the photographs

One by one, another year without ya

I'm here without ya

I'm blowing out the candles, talking to the stars

Don't know how to handle not knowing where you are

Feel like something's missing, missing, yeah

Using all my wishes, wishes, yeah

Still tryna turn the time back, letting go is hard

And blowing on an eyelash doesn't change your heart

Feel like something's missing, missing, yeah

Using all my wishes, wishes, yeah

Still wishin' you were here

What I wouldn't give to go back again

Nobody told me it would be this hard

What I wouldn't do to hold onto you

Nobody told me

I'm blowing out the candles, talking to the stars

Don't know how to handle not knowing where you are

Feels like something's missing, missing, yeah

Using all my wishes, wishes, yeah

Still wishin' you were here
