                                                               He sees his high school as his mission field
Parte I:
                                                               He's broken 'cause he knows
She's on her own, two girls at home
                                                               The hopeless road that they are taking Thirteen years just up and walked away
                                                                The empty feelings they are chasing
And left her all alone only lead to futures wasted
With bills to pay and mouths to feed
                                                                So he's willing to stand alone
                           Am
And every day she's taking care of everybody elses needs
                                                                Pré-Refrão II:
                                                                        Dm
Pré-Refrão I:
                                                               He lives what he believes when they all say it's not worth believing
But she's finding her strength in the One love that won't ever F
                                                                Every night on his knees, he prays God, won't You please help leave her me reach them?
So she works and she prays and she loves and she stays cause (Refrão)
they need her

Laying down their lives like angels in disguise
                                                                                      Am
                                                                Instead of searching for the spotlight
They're weak but always willing They'll follow Jesus into the darkest night
They dare to do the hard things

And in the dark and desperate places no one else goes
