Lord i want to feel your heart
                                                                                                                                                                                                                               May the powers of darkness tremble as our praises rise
And see the world through your eyes

Ready yourselves
                                                                                                                                                                                                                               We'll sing until the whole world hears
Let us shine the light of jesus in the darkest night
                                                                                                                                                                                                                               We'll sing until the whole world hears
