

Casting Crowns - Wedding Day

Tom: C

Intro: C Gm F

Verso:

There's a C stirring in the throne room

And all Gm creation holds its F breath

Waiting C now to see the bride groom

Wondering Gm how the bride will F dress

And she wears C white Gm - F

And she C knows that she's undeserving

She bears Gm the shame of F history

But this C worn and weary maiden

Is not the Gm bride that He F sees

And she wears Am white, head to F toe

But only Am He could make it G so

Refrão:

When someone Am dries your tears

When someone F wins your heart

And says C your beautiful

When you don't G know you are

And all you've Am longed to see

F
Is written on His face

When Dm love has come and finally F set you free

On that C wedding day Am

On that F wedding day C

C
She has danced in golden castles

And she has Gm crawled through beggar's F dust

But today C she stands before Him

And she wears Gm His F righteousness

She will Am be who He F adores

Am This is what He made her G for

(Refrão)

C
When the hand that bears the only scars

And heaven F touch her face

And the last F tears she'll ever cry

Are finally Am wiped away

And the clouds Am roll back as He takes her hand

And G walks her through the gates

F Forever we will reign

(Refrão)
