Catfish And The Bottlemen - Postpone

Tom: G

    [Verse 1]
Em
Postpone it and tell 'em life's got you
    C   Em
And take time off, tell 'em someone needs you
            D   C
Tell them all work does is bide you a year
                 Em C Em D2
Before you get out of here

[Pre-Chorus]
                    Em C Em D2
To a place that don't sleep
                     Em C Em D2
And the pubs don't shut early
                     Em C Em D2
And your ex will never call
        G
Never call

[Chorus]
C   G
From the minute you regret it
       D   C
To the minute you that you let it go
                 G
To the minute you get fed up
       D   C
From trying to please everyone
                  G   D
And the minute you forget that you can pick it up like
nothing's changed
                 G   D   C
And you feel like it all starts falling
                 G   D   C
And you feel your luck needs changing
                       G   D
Cause I'll be there when it all falls

[Verse 2]
Em
Sleep through all the rigmarole
C   Em
Your roommates calls every time they fall
            D   C
And tell them all love does is bide you a year
                 Em C Em D2
Before you get out of here

[Pre-Chorus]
                    Em C Em D2

To a place that don't sleep
                     Em C Em D2
And the pubs won't shut early
                     Em C Em D2
And your ex will never call
        G
Never call

[Chorus]
C   G
From the minute you regret it
       D   C
To the minute you that you let it go
                 G
To the minute you get fed up
       D   C
From trying to please everyone
                  G   D
And the minute you forget that you can pick it up like
nothing's changed
                 G   D   C
And you feel like it all starts falling
                 G   D   C
And you feel your luck needs changing
                       G   D
Cause I'll be there when it all falls

[Solo]
C   C   G   D   x2

Em   G
And things were never looking up (Oh yeah)
Em   G
And we were brought up not to notice

[Chorus]
C   G
From the minute you regret it
       D   C
To the minute you that you let it go

                 G   D   C
And you feel like it all starts falling
                 G   D   C
And you feel your luck needs changing
                       G   D   C
Cause I'll be there when it all falls
                 G   D   C
And you feel like it all starts falling
                 G   D   C
And you feel your luck needs changing
                       G   D   C
Cause I'll be there when it all falls

Acordes

G   Em   C   D