

Celtic Woman - Long Journey Home

tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

D If on every ocean the ship is a throne
 G D G A
 And for each mast cut down another sapling is grown
 D G D
 Then I could believe that I'm bound to find
 G D A D
 A better life than I left behind

[Refrão]

G D B-
 But as you ascend the ladder
 D A
 Look out below where you tread
 D G D
 For the colors bled as they overflowed
 G D
 Red, white and blue
 G D

Green, white and gold

[Segunda Parte]

D G D
 So I had to leave from my country of birth
 G D
 As for each child grown tall
 G A
 Another lies in the earth
 D G D
 And for every rail we laid in the loam
 G D A D
 There's a thousand miles of the long journey home

[Refrão]

G D B-
 But as you ascend the ladder
 D A
 Look out below where you tread
 D G D
 For the colors bled as they overflowed
 G D
 Red, white and blue
 G D
 Green, white and gold
