CG5 - Somebody Real

```
                  tom:
                      D
        D                       G
Listen closely to my story

Won't be boring
          D                  G
'Cause I seem something so inhumane
D                   G
We was doin' a little thievin'

For good reason
        D                   G
When I glitched into another plain

      D
And I learned some existential things
     G
I wasn't human, wasn't ever nothing
   Bm7                            A
My life is artificial, and I can't explain

                   D
I wanna be somebody real
                        G
My chains are revealed
          Bm7
Under the world
        A
Unknown unfurled
                 D
Shatter my life
              G
And delete my design
                 Bm7
But I will not yield
           A
How does it feel
               D   G   Bm7 A
To be somebody real?
```
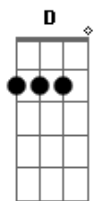

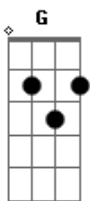

D
```
I don't matter in the slightest

D                          G
Listen closely to my story

Won't be boring
                 D                 G
'Cause I seem something so inhumane
D                        G
We was doin' a little thievin'

For good reason
          D              G
When I glitched into another plain

                 D
And I learned some existential things
    G
I wasn't human, wasn't ever nothing
    Bm7                              A
My life is artificial, and I can't explain

                      D
I wanna be somebody real
                     G
My chains are revealed
          Bm7
Under the world
          A
Unknown unfurled
                D
Shatter my life
                G
And delete my design
                 Bm7
But I will not yield
            A
How does it feel
               D   G  Bm7 A
To be somebody real?

D
I don't matter in the slightest
```
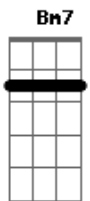

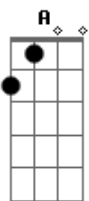

Acordes