

The Charlatans - Deeper And Deeper

Steeper and steeper
                 tom:
                                                                                    Em
                                                                     This climb might defeat me yet

Intro: Am
                                                                     No safety net
[Primeira Parte]
                                                                     It seems to be a long way down
It's the first time I ever felt like this
                                                                     It seems to be a long way down
I thought at times I had known pure bliss
                                                                     [Ponte]
Even thought I'd had the perfect kiss
                                                                      Gm
                                                                     When push comes to shove
Reading your lips is like a film with a twist
                                                                     It's only ever about the ones we love

They're saying there's nothing in their fears
                                                                     No matter where you are

I don't feel like coming up for air

Not while I've got my head in the clouds
                                                                     They?ll be playing our song on the moon

After seeing that thing you did
                                                                     I don't feel like coming up for air

Not while I've got my head in the clouds
