

Charlie Puth - I Won't Tell a Soul

tom:

Oh darling I know you're taken
Something 'bout this just don't feel right
Every time, one of us, tries to leave here
Oh the other one Holds on tight
Oh oh
Baby tonight There's so much
love in between us
But you say you gotta get home
Stay here with me
I won't tell a soul
You tell me someone's waiting for ya
That you can't do this anymore
But you kiss me again, so go ahead and Draw the blinds and Lock all the doors
Baby tonight There's so much
love in between us

But you say you gotta get home
Stay here with me
I won't tell a soul
Oh if you want me, like I want you, I won judge you
This could be our little secret
Our secret
So tell me if you're ready
'Cause if no one knows then
It ain really cheating
Oh darling I know you're taken
But something 'bout this Just feels so right Oh baby
'Cause every time, One of us, tries to justify the situation
We just hold on tighter
Oh oh
Baby tonight, There's so much,
love in between us
You say you gotta get home
Stay here with me
I won't tell a soul
