Charlie Puth - Suffer

```
Tom: Gb
                                                                      Am
                                                                      Don't you play
 (com acordes na forma de F)
                                                                      Dm
                                                                                                Am
                                        Afinação: D G C F A D
                                                                      Ain't no other man gon' make you feel the same Capostraste na 1ª casa
                                                                      Gm
Intro: Dm Am Dm Am
                                                                      I wanna make, wanna make love
                                                                      Girl, I can't lie
verse
Dm
              Am
                                                                      refrão
Torna-, Tornado
Dm Am
Baby, oh, you blow my mind
                                                                                   Dm
                                                                                           Am
                                                                      I'm just a sucker
                                                                                           Dm
  Dm
                            Am
                                                                                                  Am
You tell me wait, wait on ya
                                                                      For a cold-hearted lover
        Dm
                             Am
                                                                                    Gm
But baby, I can't wait all night
                                                                      You make me suffer
Dm
                          Am
                                                                                     Α
I go through pictures you sent before
                                                                      You make me suffer
                                                                                     Dm
Dm
                                                                                               Am
Oh stop tempting me
                                                                      Don't keep me waiting
                                                                                              Am
                                                                                      Dm
Am
                                                                      You should come over
You know what I want
                                                                                      Gm
Gm
I wanna make, wanna make love
                                                                      Don't make me suffer
                                                                                      Α
Girl. I can't lie
                                                                      Don't make me suffer
refrão
                                                                      Bridge
             Dm
                     Am
                                                                      Gm
                                                                                     Am
I'm just a sucker
                                                                      I hate it when you get your way
                     Dm
                            Am
                                                                      Gm
For a cold-hearted lover
                                                                      But we love you, we love you, baby
              Gm
                                                                      Α
You make me suffer
                                                                      Some things don't ever change
                                                                                 Dm
               Α
                                                                                              Am
                                                                      You make me suffer, baby
You make me suffer
              Dm
                         Am
                                                                      Dm Am Dm Am Gm A
Don't keep me waiting
                                                                      You, oh
                Dm
                        Am
You should come over
                                                                      refrão
                Gm
Don't make me suffer
                                                                                   Dm
                                                                                           Am
                                                                      I'm just a sucker
               Α
Don't make me suffer
                                                                                           Dm
                                                                                                   Am
                                                                      For a cold-hearted lover
verse
                                                                                    Gm
                                                                      You make me suffer
 Dm
              Am
                                                                                     Α
                                                                      You make me suffer
So here we go, go again
                                   Am
              Dm
                                                                                     Dm
                                                                                               Am
It's like I'm caught under your spell
                                                                      Don't keep me waiting
                                                                                      Dm
      Dm
                                  Am
                                                                                              Am
You're wearing black, black magic
                                                                      You should come over
        Dm
                                                                                     Gm
                                 Am
Well baby, don't wear nothing else
                                                                      Don't make me suffer
      Dm
When I open up this door
                                                                      Don't make me suffer
Acordes
      GЬ
                                                                                               Dn
                                          ukulele-chords.com
                                                         ukulele-chords.com
                                                                       ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                      ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                     ukulele-chords.com
            ukulele-chords.com
                           ukulele-chords.com
                                                                                                                    ukulele-chords.com
```

Gn

ukulele-chords.com