     repeat bridge
    Someday somewhere he'll know if it's true She'll look inside her heart and then decide it's really you the "you" is drawn out, and the last part of the bridge, in F is repeated
4 times

outro
repeat riff 2 four times
on the last time:

if you (D)let it (E)in your (A)heart (G) (Gbm) (F#5) (A
)

  in the recorded version of the song, he's "lonesome for love", but in an acoustic demo I've heard he's "lonesome for home". I much prefer the lyrics. Still do. I wouldn't like them so much if they didn't. :)

Bitch to learn, bitch to tab, but well worth it.
