

Chelou - The Quiet

Tom: G

Find my hair upon the hillside
Buried deep beneath the dirt
Saw the things I tried to hide
Cause I know how much they hurt

Silver linnings and tapestry
Survive the test of time
Broken dreams and memories

Chose your spoon, now chase your cat
Mark my losses took my feats in vain
Came away second best
Tried to be different but turned out just like the rest

Silver linnings and tapestry
Survive the test of time
