

Cher - I Saw a Man And He Danced With His Wife

tom:

Intro: E A7 E

Dm
I was by myself drinking
Am F Bb
Chilled lonely wine
Am Gm
Then he walked in with some woman
Dm A A7
Who's place was once mine
Dm F
And she wore his ring on her finger
Bb Bb7M
And the band began a song
A7
I'd heard before

[Refrão]

D Gbm
I saw a man and he danced with his wife
Em7 A7
How I wished he was dancing with me
D
'Cause I remember before
GbM
When we danced on this floor
Em7 A7
His eyes were only on me

G7M
Where did I go wrong?
GbM
They were playing our song
Bb C Db
While I was crying all night long

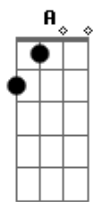

Dm C Bb
Two weeks later I heard a knock on my door
Am Gm7 A A7
He was back just like all those good time before
Dm F
Oh, then he kissed me and he told me
Bb Bb7M
"I left her 'cause I love you,
A7
So much more than I knew"

D Gbm
I saw a man and he danced with his wife
Em7 A7
But now he's dancing with me
D Gbm
I remember before when we danced on this floor
Em7 A7
His eyes were only on me

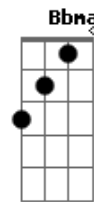

D Gbm
I saw a man and he danced with his wife
Em7 A7
But now he's dancing with me
D Gbm
I remember before when we danced on this floor
Em7 A7
His eyes were only on me

Dm C Bb
I kept watching as they danced so divine
Am Gm7
I kept hoping, kept on looking
Am A A7
But I couldn't catch his eye
Dm F
Oh, then he got up and he saw me
Bb Bb7M
But he just walked right on by
A7

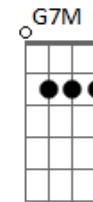

Acordes

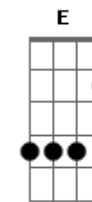

A

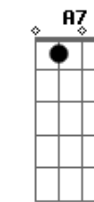

Bbmaj7

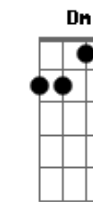

G7M

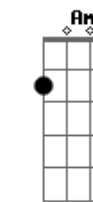

E

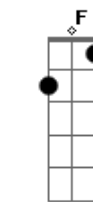

A7

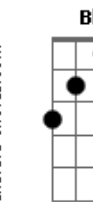

Dm

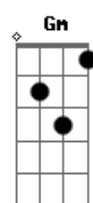

Am

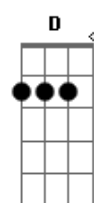

F

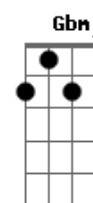

Bb

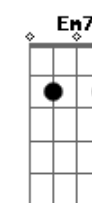

Gm

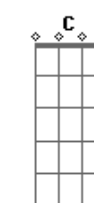

D

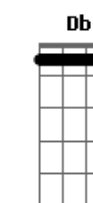

Gbm

Em7

C

Db

Gm7