Childish Gambino - Feels Like Summer

```
Tom: D
                                                                On a day like this, the heat
                                                                            Gm
                                                                I feel like summer (I feel like summer)
m
                                                                             Dm
                                                                I feel like summer (I feel like summer)
                    Dm
You can feel it in the streets
                                                                            Gm
On a day like this, the heat
                                                                I feel like summer
            Gm
It feel like summer
                                                                Dm
           Dm
                                                                   Every day gets hotter than the one before
I feel like summer
                                                                                                         Dm
                                                                   Running out of water, it's about to go down
           Gm
I feel like summer
       Dm
                                                                Go down
You can feel it in the streets
                                                                Dm
On a day like this, the heat
                                                                   Air that kill the bees that we depend upon
                                                                Gm
           Gm
I feel like summer
                                                                   Birds were made for singing
             Dm
                                                                                Dm
She feel like summer
                                                                Waking up to no sound
              Gm
This feel like summer
                                                                No sound
            Dm
I feel like summer
                                                                       Dm
                                                                I know
Dm
                                                                                      Dm
                                                                  Gm
  Seven billion souls that move around the sun
                                                                Oh, I know you know my pain
                                                  Dm
Gm
                                                                                               Dm
                                                                Gm
                                                                                                       Gm
  Rolling faster, faster and not a chance to slow down
                                                                I'm hopin' that this world will change
    Gm
                                                                                      Dm
                                                                                           Gm
Slow down
                                                                But it just seems the same
                                                                        Dm
                                                                I know
Dm
Men who made machines that want what they decide
                                                                   Gm
                                                                             Dm
                                                                Oh, I hope we change
Gm
                                                Dm
They're just tryna tell the children please slow down
                                                                Gm
                                                                                                 Dm
                                                                                                         Gm
                                                                I really thought this world would change
    Gm
Slow down
                                                                                      Dm
                                                                But it seems like the same
      Dm
I know
                                                                       Dm
                                                                I know
                        Dm
  Gm
Oh, I know you know that pain
                                                                                      Dm
                                                                  Gm
                               Dm
                                     Gm
                                                                Oh, I know you know my pain
I'm hopin' that this world will change
                                                                Gm
                                                                                               Dm
                                                                                                       Gm
                                                                I'm hopin' that this world will change
                     Dm
But it just seems the same
                                                                                     Dm
                                                                                            Gm
                                                                But it just seems the same
               Gm
(It is not the same)
                                                                        Dm
                                                                I know
                                                                             Dm
       Dm
                                                                   Gm
                                                                Oh, I hope we change
You can feel it in the streets
```

Acordes

