

Chris Brown - Crawl

Tom: Eb

(com acordes na forma de Capotraste na 3ª casa C)

Everybody sees it's you,
I'm the one that lost the view,
Everybody says we're through,
I hope you haven't said it too.

So where do we go from here
With all this fear in our eyes
And where can love take us now
We've been so far down
We can still touch the sky

If we crawl
'Til we can walk again
Then we'll run
Until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly
Until there is no wind
So lets crawl, crawl, crawl
Back to love (Yeah)
Back to love (Yeah)

Why did I change the pace
Hearts were never meant to race
Always felt the need for space
And now I can't reach your face

So where are you standing now

Are you in the crowd of my foes
Love can't you see my hand
I need one more chance
We can still have it all

So we'll crawl
'Til we can walk again
Then we'll run
Until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly
Until there is no wind
So lets crawl, crawl, crawl
Back to love (Yeah)
Back to love (Yeah)

Everybody sees its you
Well I never wanna lose that view

So we'll crawl
'Til we can walk again
Then we'll run
Until we're strong enough to jump
Then we'll fly
Until there is no wind

So we'll crawl
Then we'll run
Then we'll fly
Until there is no wind
Back to love
