Josephine where can you be now?
Again the sun is rising on my troubled heart
Don?t deny you know you and I
Are the making of what fate
Just can?t pull apart

My sweet Josephine
Won?t you come and marry me?
I got every kind of love that you will ever need
Dying here on bended knees

Sheets of rain
Cold and gray
Run down the page
As I write your name
With just the weight of your silence now
Crashing all around me while I screamed it out loud

My sweet Josephine
Won?t you come and marry me?
I got every kind of love that you will ever need

Dying here on bended knees

Like a raven in a cage
Blood of my birth
Just won?t wash away
Like a stitched together doll
My feet to the flame
As I fall on the blame
For someone else?s pain
For someone else?s pain

Rivers of black ink flood
A tapestry of flesh and blood around my frame
A living shrine just for you if you'll be mine
Golden band upon your hand
Leave this endless winter behind

My sweet Josephine
Won?t you come and marry me?
I got every kind of love that you will ever need
Dying here on bended knees
Dying here on bended knees
Dying here on bended knees
My Josephine
