

Daughtry - Traffic Light

tom:

Intro: Ab

The traffic light
 Waits for you to tell me the tale of a shattered life, tonight
 And I just passed by when you have had the chance to fight
 Or would you spend your last days alone
 Thinking nobody would have cared
Db
 Or known just look me in the eye and see that it's a light

So you're telling me, this is how you're going down Ab Eb
Fm

You thought that I never really wanted you around

Well, you are way off track to think like that Db

'Cause now you have taken back everything that you ever said Eb Db Fm

About how I'd never want to see you again Eb

Well, this is what I, what I left behind Db

Ab Eb
 What I left behind, what I left behind

Need a change
 In a minute of my time, did I get your name?
 Well, you say, that I haven't been asked that in years
 Now I think, the traffic light that stood in the way Db

So that I can hear what you had to say
 I'm halfway through your story

Ab

Can't help thinking that you're just like me

This is how I'm going down Eb

I thought that they never really wanted me around Fm

Well, I was way off track to think like that Db

'Cause now I've taken back everything that I ever said Eb Db Fm

About how they'd never want to see me again Eb

Well, this is what I, what I left behind Db

Bbm Db
 Forgetting about ourselves Fm

Db
 Is like history that dust is covering left on the shelf, on the shelf Eb

The crosswalks make the way for us to say what we need to say Eb

Ab Eb
 Yeah, this is how you're going down Fm

You thought that I never really wanted you around Db

Well, you are way off track to think like that Eb Db Fm

'Cause now you have taken back everything that you ever said Eb

About how I'd never want to see you again Db

Well, this is what I, what I left behind Fm

So you're telling me

this is how you're going down

Eb Db
 this is what I, what I left behind
