

Chris Stapleton - Daddy Doesn't Pray Anymore

tom:

Intro: E B E E

E B E E E
Daddy doesn't pray anymore

E A B
I guess he's finished talking to the Lord

A B E Ab A
He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

E B E E E
But daddy doesn't pray anymore

E B E E E
I remember even when the times were bad

E A B E Ab
He thanked Jesus for everything he had

A B
For a good wife and three children

E Ab A
And the food upon our plates

E B E E E
Yeah, everything was right when he said, grace

E B E E E
Daddy doesn't pray anymore

E A B
I guess he's finished talking to the Lord

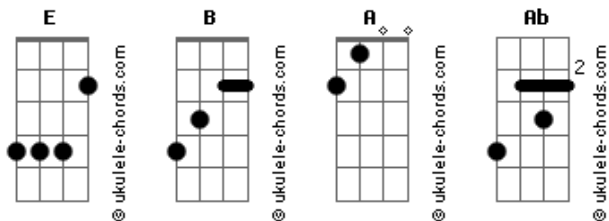

A B E Ab A
He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

E B E E E
But daddy doesn't pray anymore

E B E E E
There was a time when we didn't get along

E A B E
Cause I thought I was right and he was wrong

Acordes

Ab A B
Still when I laid down at night
E Ab A
I'd hear him get down on his knees
E B E E E
And say a little prayer for me

E B E E E
Daddy doesn't pray anymore

E A B
I guess he's finished talking to the Lord

A B E Ab A
He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

E B E E E
But daddy doesn't pray anymore

[Solo] E B E E E
E A B
A B E Ab A
E B E E E

E B E E E
Today I followed daddy down to church

E A B
And listened to the preacher read God's word

A B E Ab A
We sang his favorite hymn but daddy didn't make a sound

E B E E E
This afternoon we'll lay him in the ground

E B E E E
But daddy doesn't pray anymore

E A B
I guess he's finally walking with the Lord

A B E Ab A
He used to fold his hands and bow his head down to the floor

E B E E E
But daddy doesn't pray anymore