The alarm clock rang two hours late

The garbage man left all the trash

And the hinges fell off of the gate

A Abm

And this morning at breakfast

A Abm

I spilled all the coffee

E B Dbm B

And I opened the door on my knee

A

Oh the last thing I needed

E Dbm

The first thing this morning

B E

Was to have you walk out on me

E B

Last night you came home late

Bb

And I knew you'd been drinking

A E B

By that old mellow look on your face

E B

I thought, "It don't matter

B Bb A

'Cause it's the holiday season"

E B

And you fill such a big empty space

A Abm

And I laid down beside you

A Abm

And I wanted your lovin'

E B Dbm B

Because your love makes my life complete

A

But the last thing I needed

E Dbm

The first thing this morning

B E

Was to have you walk out on me

A Gbm A

So excuse me for lookin'

Gbm E Gbm Abm

Like my world just ended

A Gbm A

And excuse me for lookin'

Gbm E Gbm Abm

Like I just lost my best friend

A Gbm

And excuse me for livin'

And being forgiving

Gbm E Gbm Abm

So just go on if you want to be free

A

But the last thing I needed

E Dbm

The first thing this morning

B E

Was to have you walk out on me

A

But the last thing I needed

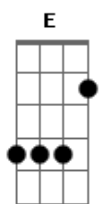

E Dbm

The first thing this morning

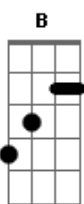

B E

Was to have you walk out on me
