When the C sun goes down
On my C side of town

There's C a rundown bar

I've got C a table for two
Way C in the back
Where F I sit alone

I G spend most every night
Beneath F the light
Of C a neon moon

[Refrão]

If F you lose your one and G only
There's F always room here for the G lonely
To F watch your broken dreams
Dance G in and out of the beams
Of C a neon moon

I C think of two young lovers
Running F wild and C free
C

I close my eyes
And C sometimes see
You F in the shadows
Of this C smoke-filled room

[Quarta Parte]

No C telling how many tears
I've F sat here and C cried
Or C how many lies
That F I've C lied
Telling F my poor heart
You F will come back one C day

[Pré-Refrão]

I G spend most every night
Beneath F the light
Of C a neon moon

[Refrão]

If F you lose your one and G only
There's F always room here for the G lonely
To F watch your broken dreams

But G I'll be alright
As F long as there's light

From C a neon moon
