

City And Colour - Harder Than Stone

Tom: Bb

(com acordes na forma de Capotraste na 3ª casa G)

Someday I will walk away
When time ain't drawing on me like a blade
Back turned to the setting sun
Leaving behind Toronto's incessant hum
'Cause I was born and raised
To live beyond
The heft and weight
Of a world undone

But I don't mean to be a bother
I don't need you to take my burden away
And I ain't afraid of dying
Cold and alone

Traipsing through the utter dark
Walking underneath the dead moonlight

Without any great concern

For what I've missed or how many bridges have burned
Like a bird who flies
All the way from the north
My heart will roam
In search of warmth

But I don't mean to be a bother
I don't need you to take my burden away
And I ain't afraid of dying
Cold and alone
When my time comes
When I was young

I didn't know too much
I thought that I could rule the world
Then I grew up
I found out life was hard
Harder than stone
