Intro: Em C

Am
 Northwest is where I'm headed,

Underneath the golden sky C G

I'm searching for a wisdom Am

That every man seeks to find C G

I've got wicked thoughts a brewin' Am

Many evil deeds I've done C G

I'm looking for a reason Am

For a reason not to run C G

Em
 I've always been dark

With light somewhere in the distance D Em 2x

I've got no destination Am

C G

No place to call my own

I'll explore the constellations Am

Till I find the course I mean to hone C G

But come fever or come famine Am

Come the biting winter cold C G

Just put two coins upon my eyelids Am

So I can pay the poor man's toll C G

Em
 I've always been dark

With light somewhere in the distance D Em 2x

I've been so unforgiving Em

Stranded in old traditions D Em

I've always been dark Em

With light somewhere in the distance D Em

(D Em C) 2x

Em
 I've always been dark

With light somewhere in the distance D Em
