

Cody Simpson - Wilderness

Tom: C

<sup>G</sup> Have you been <sup>A</sup>dreaming of the <sup>C</sup>wilderness?
<sup>G</sup> Have you been <sup>A</sup>wondering how far it is <sup>G</sup> We will go just to show that we're the <sup>A</sup>mightiest
