

David Allan Coe - Longhaired Redneck

tom: G

Country C deejays knows that D

I'm G an outlaw G

They'd never come C

To see me in this dive C

Where bikers stare at cowboys G G Em

Who are laughing at the hippies A7

Who are praying they'll get D D7

Outta here alive

The loud mouth in the corner's C D

Gettin' to me G

Talking 'bout my earrings and my hair C

I guess he ain't read the signs C

That say I been to prison G G Em

Someone ought to warn him A7

'Fore I knock him off his chair D D7

'Cause my long hair just can't C

Cover up my red neck D G

I've won every fight, I've ever fought C

Hey, I don't need some turkey C

Telling me that I ain't country G G Em

And sayin' I ain't worth the damned ol' A7

Ticket that he bought D D7M D7

'Cause I can sing G

All them songs about Texas G7 C

And I still do D

All the sad ones that I know D7 G

They tell me G

I look like Merle Haggard G7 C

And sound a lot like A7

David Allen Coe D D7

And the bar maid in the last town C D

That we played in G

Knew the words to every song I'd wrote C

She said, Jimmy Rabbitt turned her on G

To my last album G Em

Just about the time the jukebox broke A7 D

Yeah, Johnny Cash helped me C D

Get out of prison G

Long before Rodriguez stole that goat C

I've been the Rhinestone Cowboy C

For so long, I can't remember G G Em

And I can do you every song A7

Hank Williams ever wrote D D7M D7

And I can sing G

All them songs about Texas G7 C

And I still do D

All the sad ones that I know D7 G

They tell me G

I look like Merle Haggard G7 C

And sound a lot like A7

David Allen Coe D D7

But the country deejays, all think C

I'm an outlaw G

And they'd never come G

To see me in this dive C

Where bikers stare at cowboys C

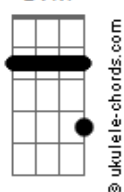

Who are laughing at the hippies G G Em

Who are praying they'll get A7

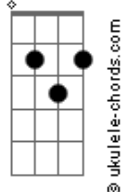

Outta here alive D
