

David Allan Coe - Longhaired Redneck

tom:

G

C D

Country deejays knows that

G

I'm an outlaw

G

They'd never come

C

To see me in this dive

C

Where bikers stare at cowboys

G G Em

Who are laughing at the hippies

A7

Who are praying they'll get

D D7

Outta here alive

C D

The loud mouth in the corner's

G

Gettin' to me

G C

Talking 'bout my earrings and my hair

C

I guess he ain't read the signs

G G Em

That say I been to prison

A7

Someone ought to warn him

D D7

'Fore I knock him off his chair

C

'Cause my long hair just can't

D G

Cover up my red neck

C

I've won every fight, I've ever fought

C

Hey, I don't need some turkey

G G Em

Telling me that I ain't country

A7

And sayin' I ain't worth the damned ol'

D D D7

Ticket that he bought

G

'Cause I can sing

G7 C

All them songs about Texas

D

And I still do

D7 G

All the sad ones that I know

G

They tell me

G7 C

I look like Merle Haggard

A7

And sound a lot like

D D7

David Allen Coe

C D

And the bar maid in the last town

G

That we played in

C

Knew the words to every song I'd wrote

G

She said, Jimmy Rabbitt turned her on

G Em

To my last album

A7 D

Just about the time the jukebox broke

C D

Yeah, Johnny Cash helped me

G

Get out of prison

C

Long before Rodriguez stole that goat

C

I've been the Rhinestone Cowboy

G G Em

For so long, I can't remember

A7

And I can do you every song

D D D7

Hank Williams ever wrote

G

And I can sing

G7 C

All them songs about Texas

D

And I still do

D7 G

All the sad ones that I know

G

They tell me

G7 C

I look like Merle Haggard

A7

And sound a lot like

D D7

David Allen Coe

C D

But the country deejays, all think

G

I'm an outlaw

G

And they'd never come

C

To see me in this dive

C

Where bikers stare at cowboys

G G Em

Who are laughing at the hippies

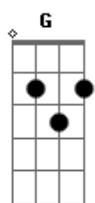

A7

Who are praying they'll get

Outta here alive
